Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 1, 20, and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Wilde, U.S. Patent No. 5,986,663.

3. As per claim 1, Wilde teaches a method for calculating a level of detail (LOD) value for use during computer graphics processing, comprising: a) identifying a plurality of geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 4-6); b) computing a distance value based on the geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 5-10); and c) calculating a LOD value using the distance value for use during computer graphics processing (column 4 lines 1-17).

4. As per claim 20, Wilde teaches a computer program embodied on a computer readable medium for calculating a level of detail (LOD) value for use during computer graphics processing, comprising: a code segment for identifying a plurality of geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 4-6); a code segment for computing a distance value based on the geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 5-10); and a code segment for calculating a LOD value using the distance value for use during computer graphics processing (column 4 lines 1-17).

5. As per claim 38, Wilde teaches a system for calculating a level of detail (LOD) value for use during computer graphics processing, comprising: logic for identifying a plurality of geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 4-6); logic for computing a distance value based on the geometrically arranged coordinates (column 4 lines 5-10); and logic for calculating a LOD value using the distance value for use during computer graphics processing (column 4 lines 1-17).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2-19 and 21-37 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
